

Strategic Partners

Strategic Partners are institutions and development entities that help us to realize our goal of creating economic wealth within distressed communities. They provide us with the tools to build a stronger economic environment through housing, commerce, and commercial enterprise.